Re:

To Whom It May Concern:

I have seen the recent madness surrounding the West Virginia State Police so I thought I might resend this letter as Col. Cahill did nothing in response to my prior communication in October of 2022.

Please be advised that I have been engaged by [REDACTED] to prosecute a claim for damages against the West Virginia State Police and Trooper Michael J. Miller arising out of one of the most outrageous set of facts that anyone could ever imagine. The conduct of your employee is abominable and he should be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

On the evening of December 17th and the early morning hours of December 18th 2021, Trooper Michael J. Miller drugged, kidnapped, and brutally raped [REDACTED]. Your police officer, while flashing his badge around the American Legion Post 19 club in Logan, West Virginia, changed my client's life forever. [REDACTED] is the loving mother of five beautiful children and a grandchild. She cannot ever go back to work, she is suffering from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and is in intense treatment and counselling in connection with the physical, mental, emotional, and psychological injuries visited upon her by Miller. For specific details of these incomprehensible acts by your employee, please call the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI). A preview of what that conversation is that [REDACTED] woke up naked in her bed with blood, urine, and feces all over her. Her earrings were ripped out of her ears, her hair was pulled out, her teeth were damaged, and she had been raped vaginally and sodomized with some instrument. This is all confirmed by the rape unit at the emergency department at CAMC Women's and Children's Hospital, in Charleston, West Virginia. To show you how ignorant your trooper is, the morning after he shattered this lady's world, Trooper Miller sent a Facebook message to [REDACTED] and asked if he'd left his hat in her car. The FBI has this message, and his hat, so you may want to discuss that with them, as well.
