

Mia's Out of this World Adventure

In a forest lived a snow fox named Mia. Mia was happy, but not truly happy. Mia was curious and wanted to go on adventures. One day, Mia discovered a tree with a fish door. Mia reached out and opened the door. The door sucked Mia inside and everything went dark.

Mia found herself under water and was surprised she could breathe. A group of mermaids swam to Mia and they all started talking. One of the mermaids told Mia that a dragon named Flare kidnapped one of the mermaids and left the ocean world. Mia then found a door that looked like a horn. Mia opened the door and entered.

Mia felt herself falling in the sky. Mia was caught by a creature called an Alicorn who flew Mia to its cloud city. The Alicorns told Mia their friend had been kidnapped by a dragon. Mia told them she wanted to help. They showed Mia a door that looked like a snake, and she entered.

Suddenly, Mia felt hot sand under her paws. Mia took a step and started sinking. A maroon snake threw its tail to Mia and pulled her out. The snake took Mia on its back to a pyramid city with other snakes. The snakes started to tell Mia about their kidnapped friend and Mia said, "let me guess... it was a dragon".

The snakes all hissed,
"Ye ssssss!" and showed her a door that looked like flames. Mia arrived in a world of fire
and saw Flare
talking to the kid
kidnapped creatures.
He was trying to get them to play.
They were scared
and did not want to play. Flare then

looked sad, and a
flame tear fell
from his eye. Mia
said she'd play with Flare if he returns
all of the creatures
home. Flare returned the creatures and Mia played with him all
day. Flare took Mia home. Mia invited the creatures in the other worlds to come play with a special guest. One week later, the creatures

showed up in Mia's
world and they all
played and had fun.
Mia was happy now.
