

Ballet is Magical and I Love it

Written and Illustrated by:

One day there was a girl named Paulette who loved ballet so her mom signed her up.

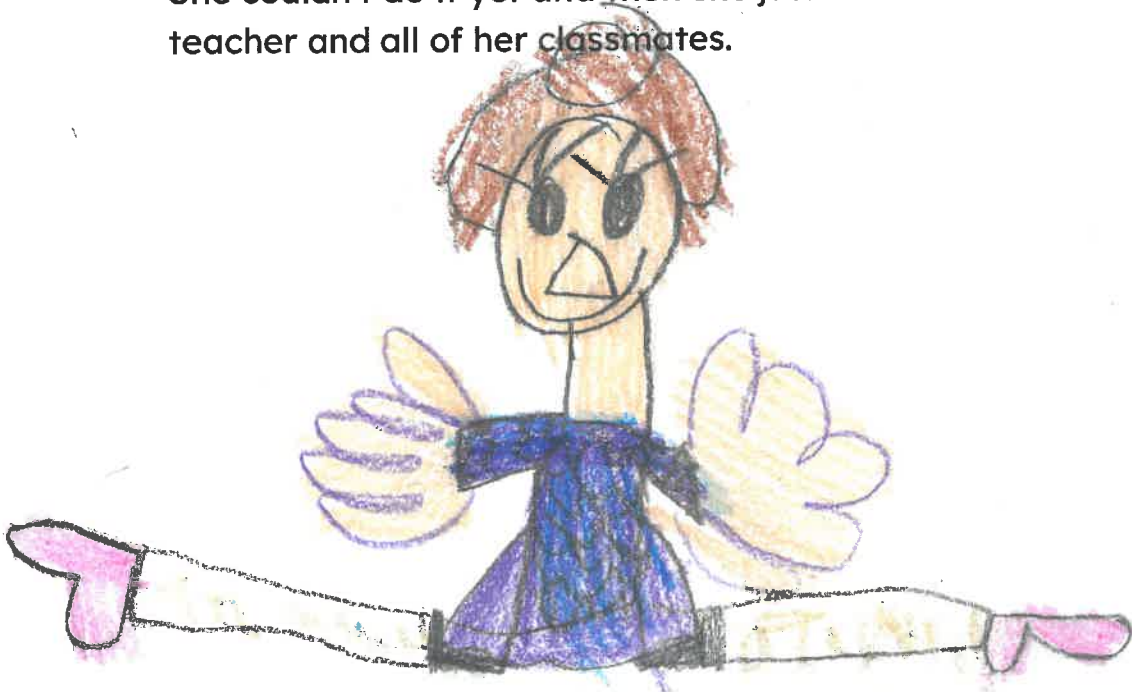

Then her mom drove her to the dance studio and she loved ballet.

She went and her class was starting. She started to practice a twirl.

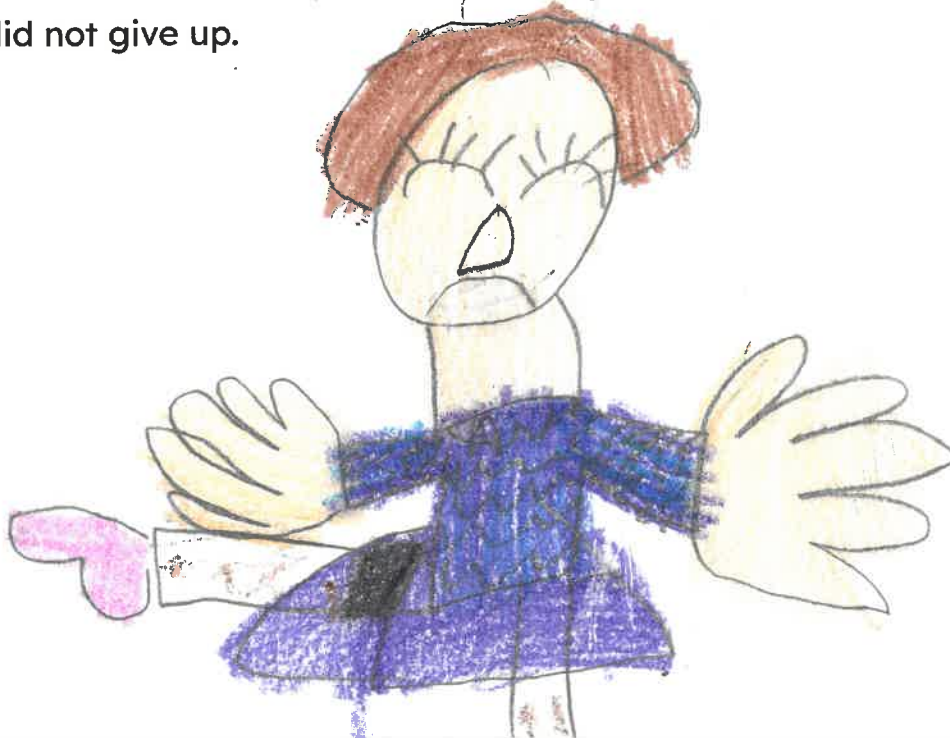

She couldn't do it yet and then she just sat down to wait for her teacher and all of her classmates.

She saw her class come in and her teacher. Her teacher decided everybody should do a twirl.

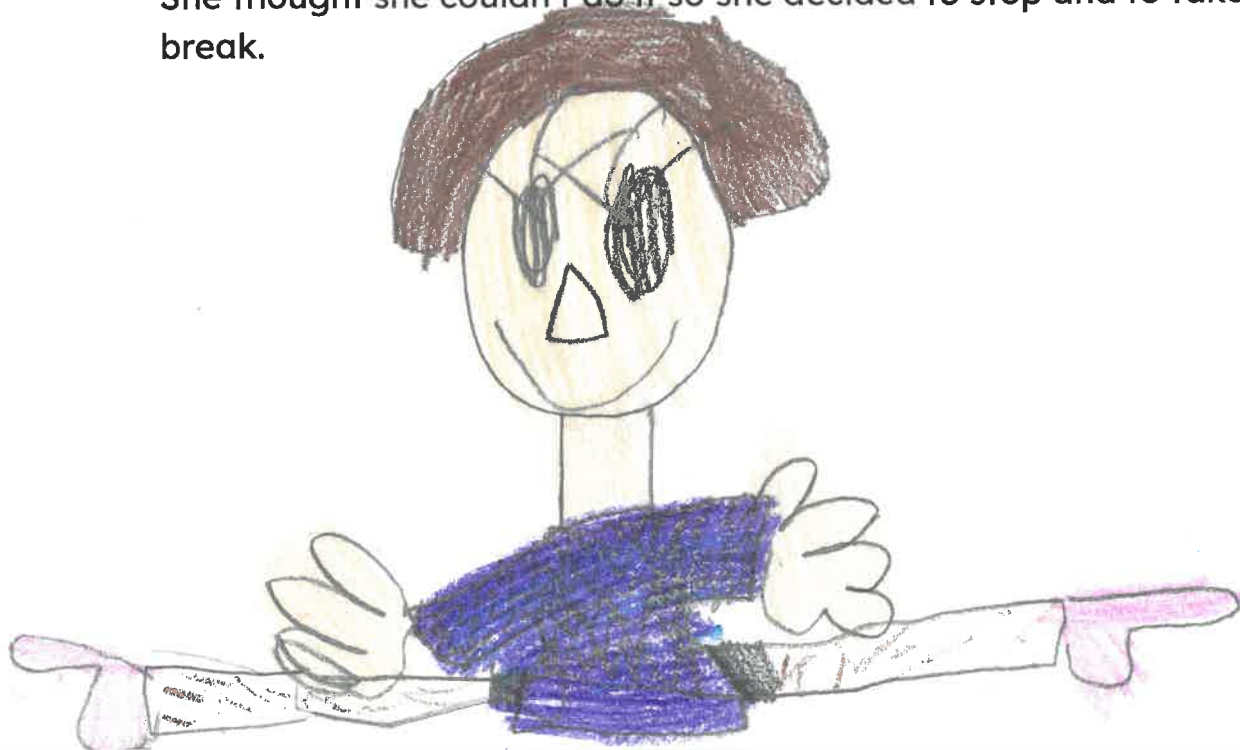

She tried and she fell down. She was very sad that she fell down but she did not give up.

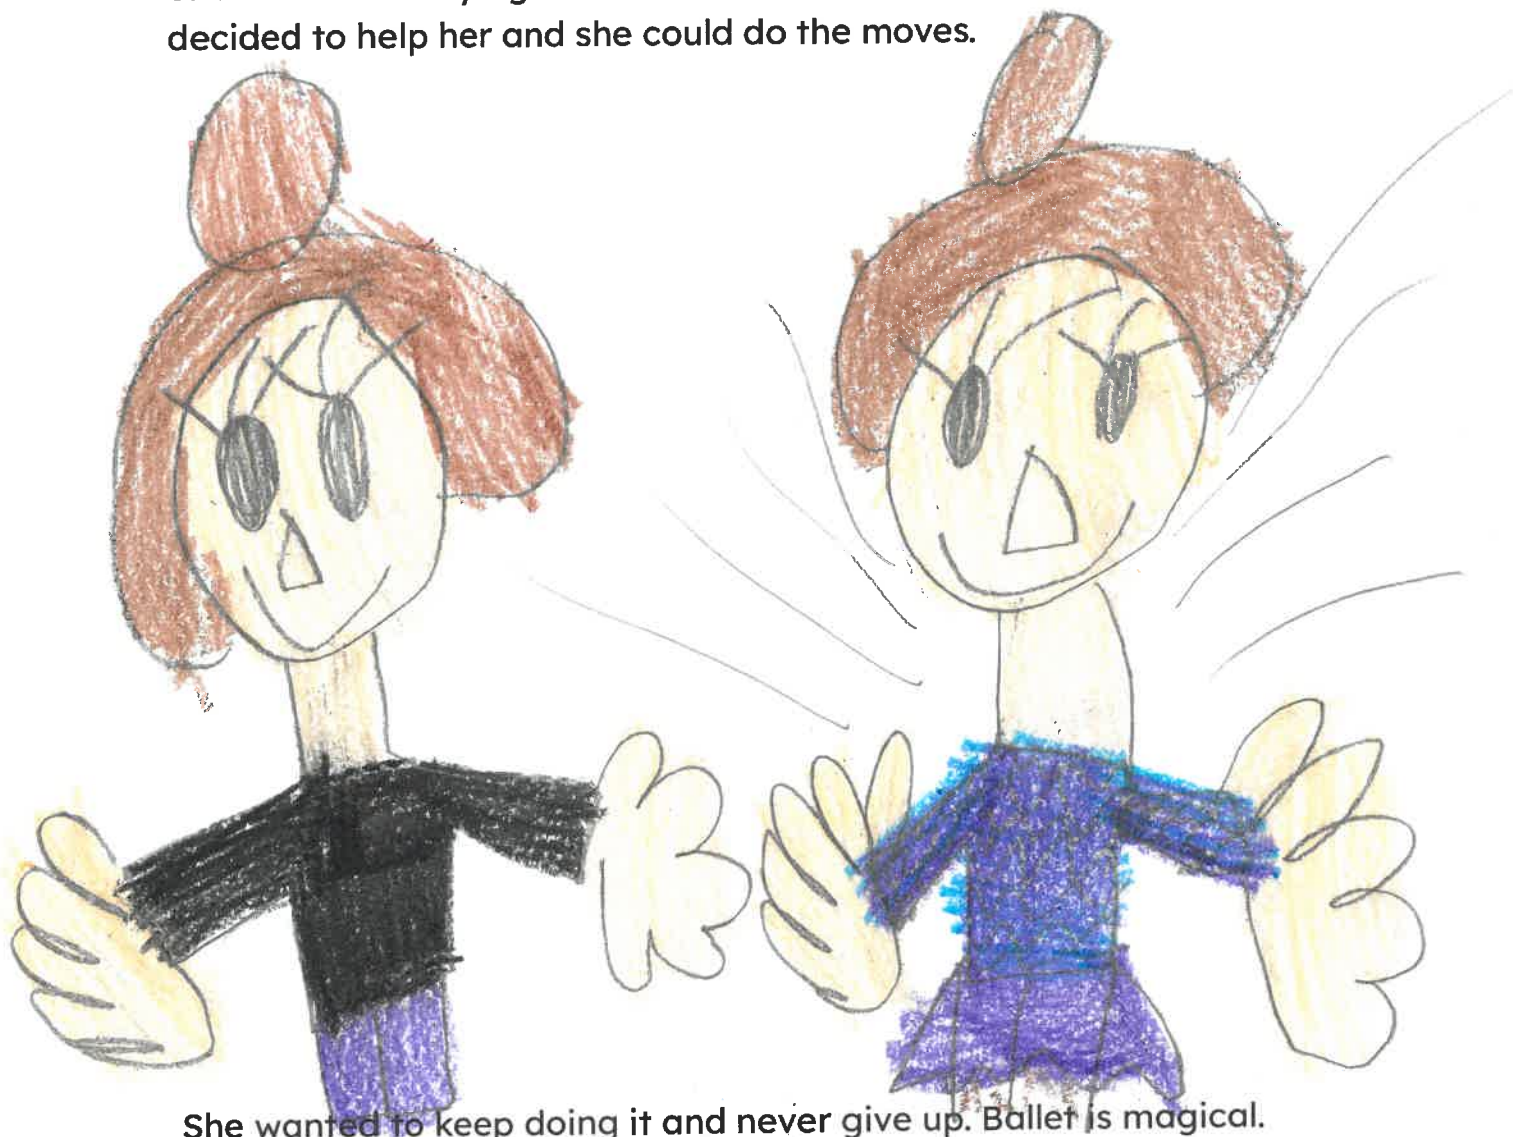

Her teacher said to do another twirl with her hands up in the air. She tried it and fell down. She did not like to fall down.

She thought she couldn't do it so she decided to stop and to take a break.

She decided to try again. She still couldn't do it but her teacher decided to help her and she could do the moves.

She wanted to keep doing it and never give up. Ballet is magical.
The end.
