

The Boy and the Time Machine

By Elias Cooper

While walking in the woods I saw a vine-covered machine. I cut vines, but still didn't know what it was. I pulled the rusty door on the front. It creaked open. I crawled inside and saw:

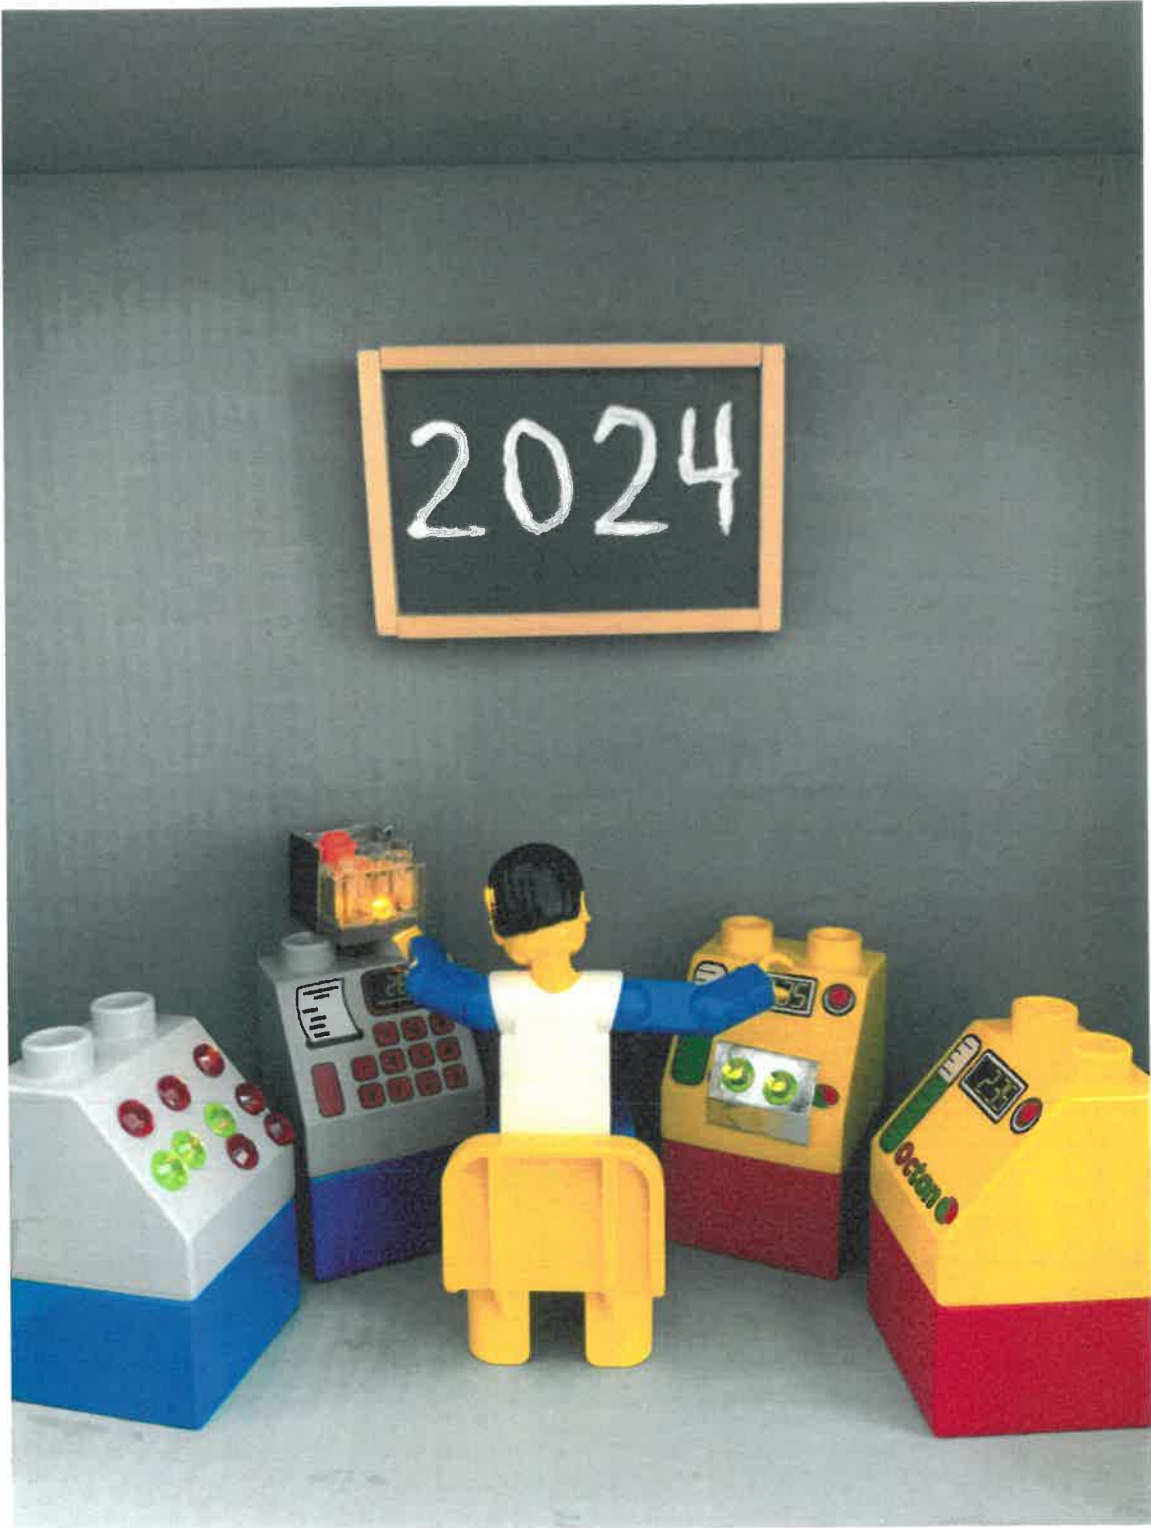

GO

Dinosaurs

Cave man

Space

"A time machine!" I thought. I tapped.

Dinosaur. Lights flashed like a camera. A voice

said:

The door opened I climbed out. It wasn't my woods. There were smoking volcanoes, lava,
and Stegosauruses munching grass. I creeped toward them. Suddenly a T-rex charged at me!
I ran to the time
machine and jumped in.

s slamming the door. I

HOME

Lights flashed,
hopefully teleporting
me home.

The door opened, I was in my woods. I climbed out and
noticed a baby stegosaurus had sneaked in the time machine. I picked her up and
camouflaged the time
machine with leaves.

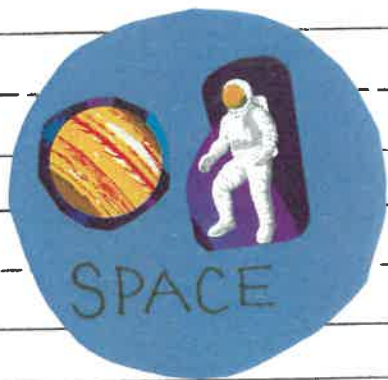

I put pine needles in a box
for the stegosaurus,
sneaked to my bedroom,
and checked my tablet
to see what stegosaurus ate.

I decided to keep her
and later go back to get a boy stegosaurus
so I could start a new dinosaur family in my time.

I wonder where the

would take me!
