

The Best Boy

by: Bowen Groves

Hi,
I'm Zig-Zag!

Hi, my name is Zig-Zag! I'm a dog, an Australian Shepherd to be exact. I have always lived here at the shelter. All my brothers and sisters have been adopted. No one wants to adopt me, because I am too zoomy!

Last week, I met a boy named Wade. He came to the shelter to read to us with his library group. I really like him! He looked like he wanted to be my friend. Wade sat down to read to me, and it felt better than anything a dog has ever felt before.

I hope he wants to adopt me! I want to be his dog! He loves my zoomies and even danced with me! Wade is the best and I love him so much!

Over
here!

"Over here! Look, this is him," I heard my boy yell. Suddenly, there he was. Wade is here!

"Guess what!?! You're my dog now, Zig-Zag. Lets go home." Yes, Wade really is the best boy. He is my boy, and I am his.
