

A Hungry Little Donkey Travels The World.

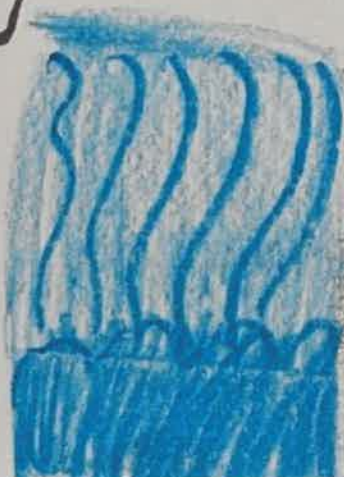

One morning a little Jerusalem donkey from West Virginia woke up very hungry. She wanted to travel around the world to eat different foods. She hopped in the car to start her adventure.

Welcome
to Canada

Niagara Falls

Donkey arrived in Canada ready to eat breakfast. She ordered a stack of pancakes drizzled with maple syrup. After eating her pancakes Donkey visited Niagara Falls. From there she headed to the airport.

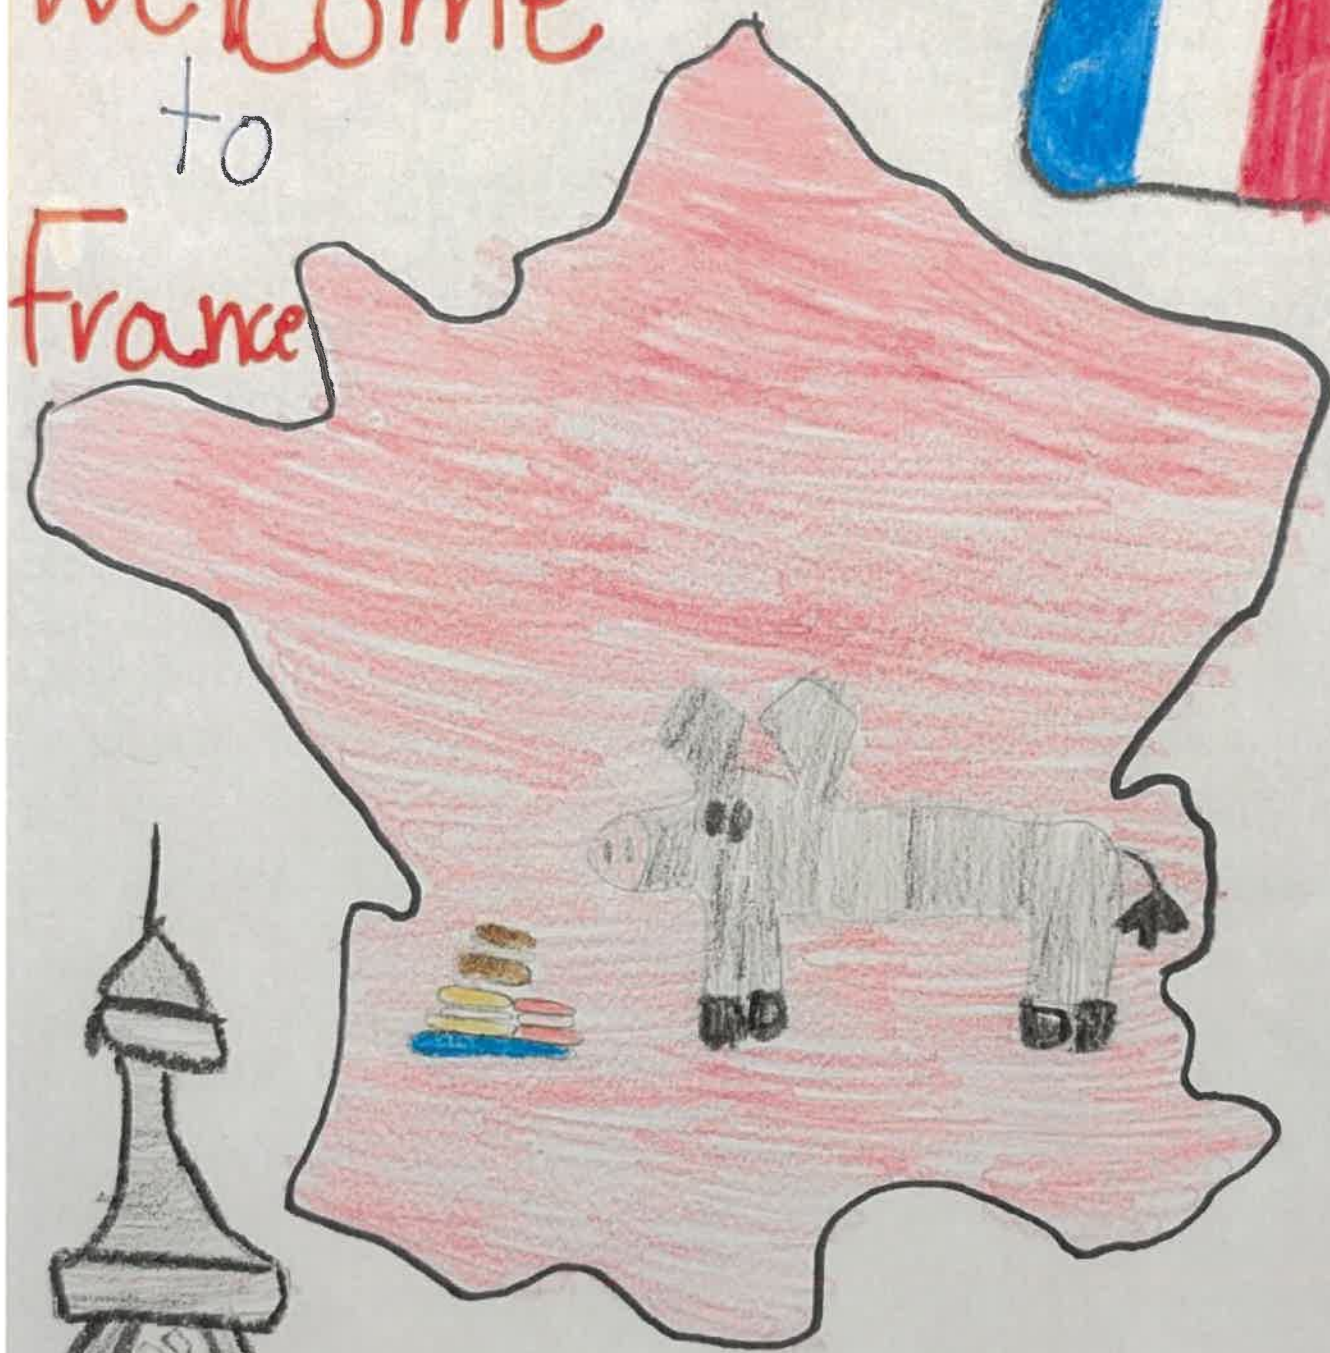

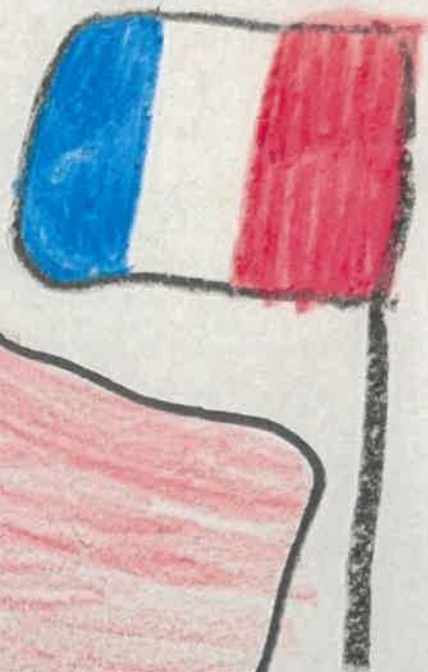

Welcome
to England

When the plane landed she was in England. She boarded a double-decker bus and headed to a local restaurant. Even though she didn't like sea food, Donkey was brave and ordered fish and chips. After trying the meal she did not like the fish but enjoyed the chips. She thought it was funny that the chips were really french fries. Still hungry, Donkey went to the train station.

Welcome
to France

The train arrived in France. As a reward for trying the fish, Donkey treated herself to macarons. They were soft, sweet and delicious. Before leaving she visited the Eiffel Tower, climbed to the top and enjoyed the view of Paris. She then got on a boat to travel to the next location.

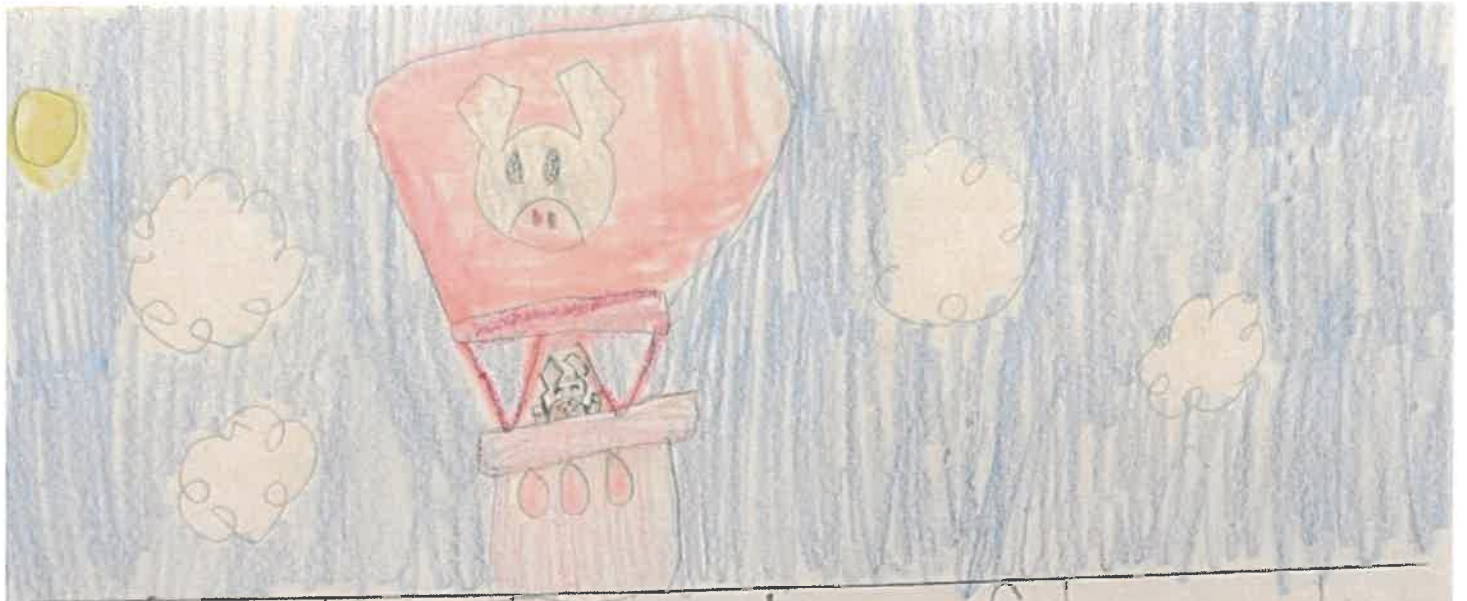

Welcome
to mexico

When the boat docked, Donkey was in Mexico. It was hot and sunny so she bought a sombrero to keep her cool.

Donkey was excited to see a stand selling her favorite food, TACOS!! She thought the taco was the best thing she had eaten all day!

After her long day of traveling and eating Donkey decided it was time to go home. She saw a hot air balloon and climbed into the basket thinking this was the perfect way to travel home. When the balloon landed back in West Virginia Donkey enjoyed a Fairmont pepperoni roll. Happy to be home the tired little donkey snuggled up in her bed and went to sleep.

The End //

Country Roads Take Me Home

