

The US is failing to adequately support Maternal Mental Health:

National Grade of C

The U.S. earned an F in the new "Parental Support" Domain

No states earned As

You've Selected:

West Virginia - 2026 Report Card

Screening & Detection

- Medicaid requires MCOs to report "prenatal depression screening" HEDIS measure
- Medicaid requires MCOs to report "postpartum depression screening" HEDIS measure
- Top performer on the "prenatal depression screening" HEDIS measure (among commercial insurance and/or Medicaid)
- Top performer on the "postpartum depression screening" HEDIS measure (among commercial insurance and/or Medicaid)

Providers & Treatment

- Meets ratio of MMH therapists and other non-prescribers (5 per 1,000 births)
- Meets ratio of MMH psychiatric provider prescribers (3 per 5,000 births)
- Has a perinatal psychiatry consultation program for OBs
- Has at least one inpatient or residential MMH treatment program
- Has at least one MMH intensive outpatient program (IOP) or partial hospitalization program (PHP)
- Meets ratio of community-based organizations (CBOs) providing direct service for MMH (at least 1 per 50,000 births)

Policy & Payment

- State Perinatal Quality Collaborative (PQC) has prioritized MMH
- Has or has had a state-sanctioned MMH Task Force or Commission
- Requires Medicaid/commercial health plans to develop an MMH quality management program
- Expanded Medicaid (is an ACA Medicaid expansion state)
- Extended Medicaid coverage to one year postpartum
- Provides enhanced Medicaid reimbursement or state investment in group prenatal care
- Medicaid provides reimbursement for group parenting programs (without requiring the child have a diagnosis)
- Maternity provider prenatal MMH screening claim submission rate meets threshold (private insurance)

Maternity provider prenatal MMH screening claim submission rate meets threshold (private insurance)

Maternity provider postpartum MMH screening claim submission rate meets threshold (private insurance)

Provider prenatal MMH treatment claim submission rate is at least 10% (private insurance)

Provider postpartum MMH treatment claim submission rate is at least 10% (private insurance)

---

Parental Support

Public paid parental leave is available

0 points

Public paid parental leave is at least 12 weeks

0 points

Pay during leave is 100% for the lowest income families

0 points

Childcare availability

0 points

Childcare affordability

0 points

Eligibility for childcare subsidies is  $\geq$ 85% state median income

0.5 points